Randy,

June 7, 77

Well kid what can I say to someone I'm in love with? All I know is that you made this year the best, without you here, where would I be?

We've had so many good times, and only few bad. You're the best thing that ever happened to me. You're such a doll, and the cutest walking creature on this earth.

I'm so glad I got to know you, and I know that any body who gets to know you as I do now is really lucky, cause Randy you're the sweetest, nicest person anyone can know.

I'll always remember 4/13/77 plus all of our other important days and nights we've had together these last 9 months — 9 months almost — wow!! Did ya think it would last this long? Well this is only the beginning of a long lasting relationship.

I really wanna thank you for everything that you've done for me. You've made each day end and start with a better one. You've done so much for me, and I just want to say "thanks".

Besides being such a great trusting and loyal friend to me, you're the best companion also.

I know we'll be spending a lot of time together this summer, and it's gonna be great. - So until then kid -

Take it Easy - And - YOUR STILL THE ONE

Love Always - and - Forever

Debbie

The class of '77 speaks for the entire school district and all John Jay students, past and present, in dedicating this yearbook to Mr. Charles Helmes.

As the 1977 school year draws to a close, so does the thirty-two year term of Charles Helmes as Chief School Administrator of the Katonah – Lewisboro district. Long a resident of this area, Mr. Helmes graduated from Katonah High School and later attended Columbia. After graduating from New Paltz State College, he taught English and social studies in Yorktown. Between 1942 and 1945, he worked with the American Red Cross Military Welfare Service. Upon his return to the United States, Mr. Helmes became district principal for Lewisboro in 1945 and was then promoted to Superintendent when the two districts merged in 1952.

As an educator Mr. Helmes is one of the most distinguished people in his field. Having served on many state and local administrative committees, he has earned an excellent reputation among his colleagues. The very fact that he has spent thirty-two years in this position (when the local average for school superintendents is three) is evidence of Mr. Helmes's relentless diligence and dedication. This position is not simply an eight – hour a day occupation that is forgotten as soon as five o'clock comes around. It is an intensely demanding job which requires constant attention.

One of the most respected districts in the area, Katonah – Lewisboro owes much of its success to Mr. Helmes. Having always maintained peaceful relations between the faculty and the administration (there has never been a strike in the district), he is also known for his everlasting concern with "what's best for the kids". When asked to describe his greatest achievement within the district, he answered that it was the careful selection of good teachers for the schools. He believes that the best thing that can happen in an academic environment is close interaction between students and faculty. A devoted patron of the arts, Mr. Helmes has sought to provide the students here with a good, basic cultural background. "There is enough ugliness in life. Students must have more exposure to beauty." Mr. Helmes believes in the importance of a strong fundamental education which enables youngsters to meet the problems of life and understand and respect their fellow man.

Although the expansion of the district removed Mr. Helmes from working directly with the students, his influence is still certainly obvious. Known for his gregarious nature, he will often drop everything in order to give advice or to help someone with a problem. Because he makes himself available to everyone, he is always ready to give generously of his time and counsel. He immediately establishes good rapport with his geniality and easy – going sense of humor. Often referred to as someone whom you work with, not for, Mr. Helmes is an eminent and highly respected man in this community and his influence will be felt long after he has left office. We thank you Mr. Helmes for your fine leadership and never – ending personal concern, and we wish you the very best for the future.

Sincerely yours,

the Katonah – Lewisboro community and the STATESMAN '77 staff.

All the world's a stage,

Sock'n'Buskin, Variety Show, Summer Stock.

Loudspeaker: May I have your attention please? Will the following people report to K-Study immediately after homeroom: Arnold Amsco, Denise Dontacara, Jacqueline Duall, Adida Thompson, Oliver Lawrence, and O.K. Simpson.

(Enter O.K. and Oliver)

O.K.: So tell me, Ollie, what did they call us down here for?

Oliver: Perchance the Earl of Feener has issued an injunction and banished us to this place.

O.K.: Yeah, sure. Now tell it to me in English.

(Enter Jackie and Adida)

Oliver: Is this Jackie and Adida I see before me? Wherefore are we here?

Jackie: I'm not positive, but I think it's some kind of yearbook meeting.

O.K.: Yearbook meeting? I'm not part of any yearbook. Unless they're still not sure of how many pages to devote to me in the Sports Section.

Adida: Pages? Even a sentence would be stretching it.

O.K.: When I want your opinion, I'll ask for it.

Adida: Oh my, forgive me your Highness.

(Enter Mr. Weatherbee and Arnold)

O.K.: Hey Hornsby. How's it going?

Mr. Weatherbee: I'm fine O.K. And I see you're still pretending to be a student.

Jackie: Hi, Mr. Weatherbee.

Mr. Weatherbee: Hello, Jackie, Adida. By the way Oliver, it's still K-9. It's been so long since you've graced the class with the presence, I thought you might have forgotten.

Adida: Hey, Mr. Weatherbee, do you know why we're here?

Mr. Weatherbee: I think it would be better if Jill explained it for herself.

(Enter Jill and Denise)

O.K.: It's about time.

Jill: I'm sorry I'm late. Thank you for coming. I guess you are all wondering what's going on. Well, you see, you've been selected to – O.K.: Selected by who?

Arnold: Whom. The object of the preposition required the objective case. Therefore, it is "whom" and not "who".

O.K.: Whatever!

Jill: You were selected by the STATESMAN staff. We've been having a problem in coming up with a theme for the '77 yearbook, and we thought that maybe you could help us decide.

O.K.: That's it? Hey, I can solve your problem for you right now. Center the book on sports and everybody is happy.

Jackie: Come on, O.K. Nobody is going to like a yearbook on sports.

O.K.: You got a better suggestion?

Jackie: Yes. Activities.

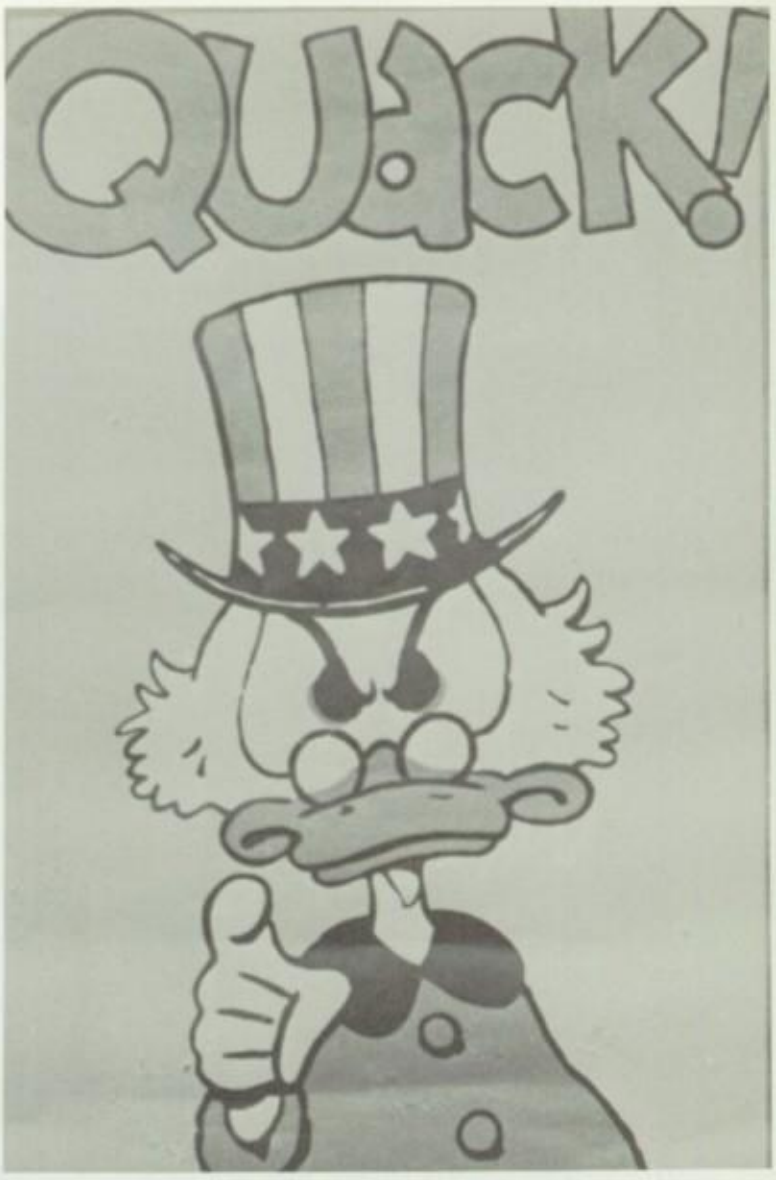
O.K.: Are you kidding me? Activities?

Denise: You're both wrong. It's only fitting that the STATESMAN focus on seniors.

Adida: No, Denise. I think that –

Mr. Weatherbee: All right, calm down everybody. Arnold, why don't you start?

Arnold: Certainly . . .



QUACK!

Underclassmen

Arnold: It seems obvious that the literary endeavors of this association are clearly lacking in any direction which would be in any degree beneficial to that often ignored mass of students, the underclassman.

O.K.: (whispering to Oliver) What'd he say?

Mr. Weatherbee: Well, what would you propose Arnold?

Arnold: Comprising over sixty-six point six six six repeating per cent of the John Jay student body are the underclassmen. We are engaged in the intense educational pursuits vital to the development of –

O.K.: Will somebody turn him off?

Arnold: – of the intellectual stability of each sophomore and junior. In short, we are hardly a group to be overlooked.

O.K.: Oh yeah? What school do you go to?

Arnold: I believe that the quintessence of this year's yearbook be made to reflect the patterns and purposes of the underclassmen as a whole.

O.K.: (aside) Wake me up when he's finished . . .

Denise: I think you've all been ignoring something rather important.

All: What?

Denise: Why, it's staring you right in the eye. The seniors should be the major theme of this yearbook.

Jackie: Would you mind telling us why?

Denise: Maybe all you see of us seniors is the social side – partying, slumping off during second semester, lazy spring days on the front lawn thinking about graduation and the class we just cut.

Mr. Weatherbee: Is there another side?

Denise: Certainly! Senior year is also a time of immense confusion, anxious waiting, and bewildered perplexities. First of all, we have to decide what we're going to do when we get out of here. Then we have to decide where we're going to do it.

O.K.: Well, that should be easy. Man, when I get out of here, I look forward to carefree days hanging around Sal's.

Denise: That's not the route everyone takes, O.K. There are long hours poring over career guides and college catalogs, hoping to make the fateful, the one and only, THE RIGHT CHOICE.

seniors

Oliver: It sounds about as constructive as waiting for Godot.

Denise: Suddenly you find yourself at a dead end. Your Aunt Sadie wants you to go to her old alma mater. Your father wants you to go to a state school. People are pulling you in all directions and you wonder if senior year will ever be over. Then come the applications, the test scores, and tearful conferences with your guidance counselor. It is a long time before we discover who wants us and who doesn't. But when those mysterious envelopes leer at us one day from the mailbox we suddenly KNOW! The verdict may be great or grim, but whether our tears are of pain or joy, there comes an assurance, a kind of certainty that gives meaning to all those months of waiting. At last our futures are no longer in someone else's hands; from here on in, it's totally up to us.

Oliver: If senior year is going to bring that much grief, let me curtail the tragedy of high school right now.

Denise: Don't give up yet. NOW is the time to relax and socialize, to have fun and frolic, to ENJOY! Have you ever noticed what the face of a senior looks like during second semester? There's a grinning playfulness coupled with that anxious intensity to GO. There's the aching to leave high school, and at the same time, a sadness and reluctance to say goodbye to all your friends.

(All yawn.)

faculty

Mr. Weatherbee: Frankly, I'm sick and tired of seeing kids faces filling the excess space in the yearbook. What the STATESMAN needs is a little originality. I know you are going to find this hard to believe, but teachers are people too. I think it's about time we get the recognition we deserve. We work long hours trying to teach you kids to . . .

Oliver: Too melodramatic.

Mr. Weatherbee: Break a leg, Oliver. You're never in class long enough to get to know how dedicated and special we really are.

O.K.: You tell him, Hornsby.

Mr. Weatherbee: First . . .

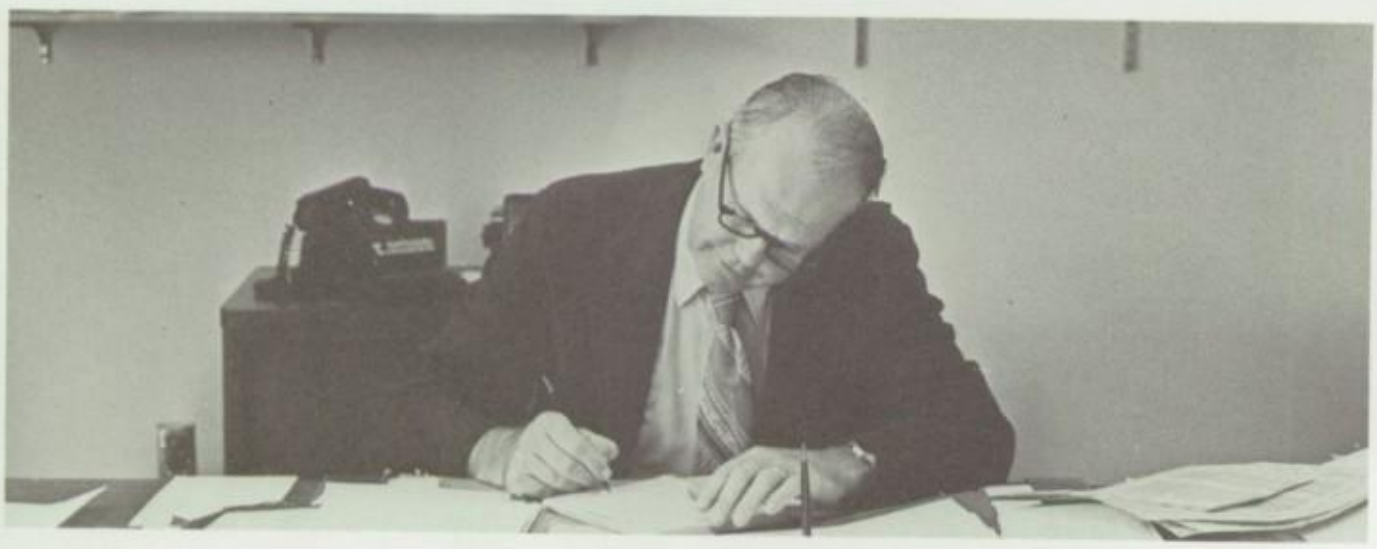
administration

Who does that voice on the PA system belong to that is always beckoning lazy students up to his office? Why, it's Don Feener (above), our assistant principal and the world's best come-on-and-confess-you-were-cutting champion.



And who heads the entire conglomeration of students and faculty? Bob Williams (above), our esteemed principal, who manages to maintain a sane and witty outlook despite the many setbacks we all confront him with.

And of course our Guidance Staff. First there's Joan McQueen. (right) who's been known to faint at the sight of a late college application.

And Lindsay Bates (below). Bet you didn't know he was a pro-baseball player on the side.

Who do you go to when the only thing between you and happiness is UNEMPLOYMENT? You guessed it, Irving Mahl (right).

Also Charles Higgins (right) who holds the coveted position of Head Guidance. And Claire Ward (far right) whose cheery smile never fades even when she finds that the computer has scheduled every sophomore girl for twelfth grade gym with Mr. Lyons.

clerical

To whom do we owe the smooth efficiency of this office? To the clerical staff, of course.

(Clockwise from top) – Dorothy Hund, Mrs. Raftery, Hester Posner, Mrs. Yarish, Margaret Hinkley, Carol Smith.

cafeteria

What about our cafeteria staff? Without them, John Jay would have to do without french fries to nourish its hearty appetite.

custodians

And our custodians, who are always ready to lend a helping hand. The STATESMAN staff would like to give special thanks to Henry Washburn, Stanely Crowley and Harold Carman who have retired after many years of faithful and dedicated service to our school.

Then there's the Medical Staff that keeps everyone at John Jay working with sound mind and body.

health and psychology

business and practical arts.

In the Business and Practical Arts Departments is Harry LeFevre (left) John Jay's answer to the Sweathog's famed Gabe Kotter. And you can always tell the home economics rooms by Liz Berman's (below) culinary creations. Her human relations classes have also become a big hit with the students.

And Walter McEnaney (above) whose shop classes have yielded many a fine piece of craftsmanship.

Then there's Thelma Goldberg (above) who has pulled the STATESMAN through many a hassle on the business end.

really

On to the English Department headed by the incomparable Armando Henriquez (right) whose booming baritone bombards every inch of K . . . even in his absence. And Carol Austin (below) who has returned from Scotland with a brogue and an old Victorian mystique.

And what about John Noble (above) whose captivating stories can enhance any student's day.

Then there's Peggy Hefferon (below) whose strong journalistic abilities have given the old Forum a new Focus.

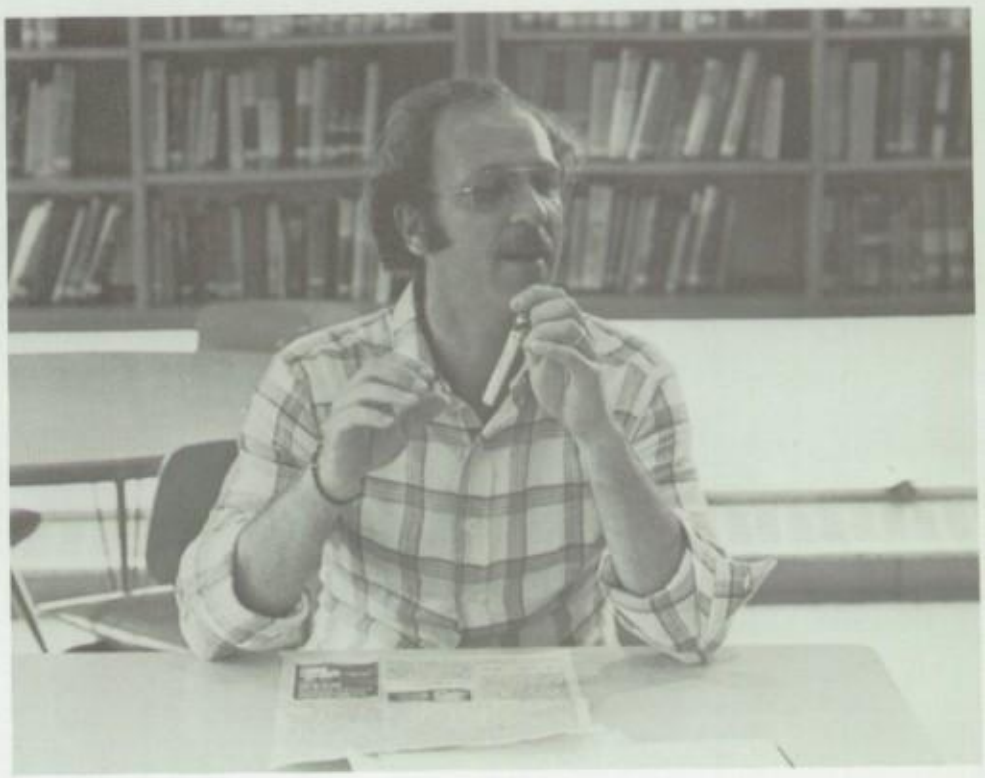
social studies

Our new Social Studies Department Coordinator, Neal Monroe Adams (right) is the Czar of K-study, under constant threat of revolution by proletariat chess players.

Then there's Uwe Bagnato (above) who can be found in a pagoda in Southeast Asia during his free periods. And quiet, unassuming Dick Parsons (right) who is, in reality, using his classrooms as a front for a secret utopian society just outside Vista.

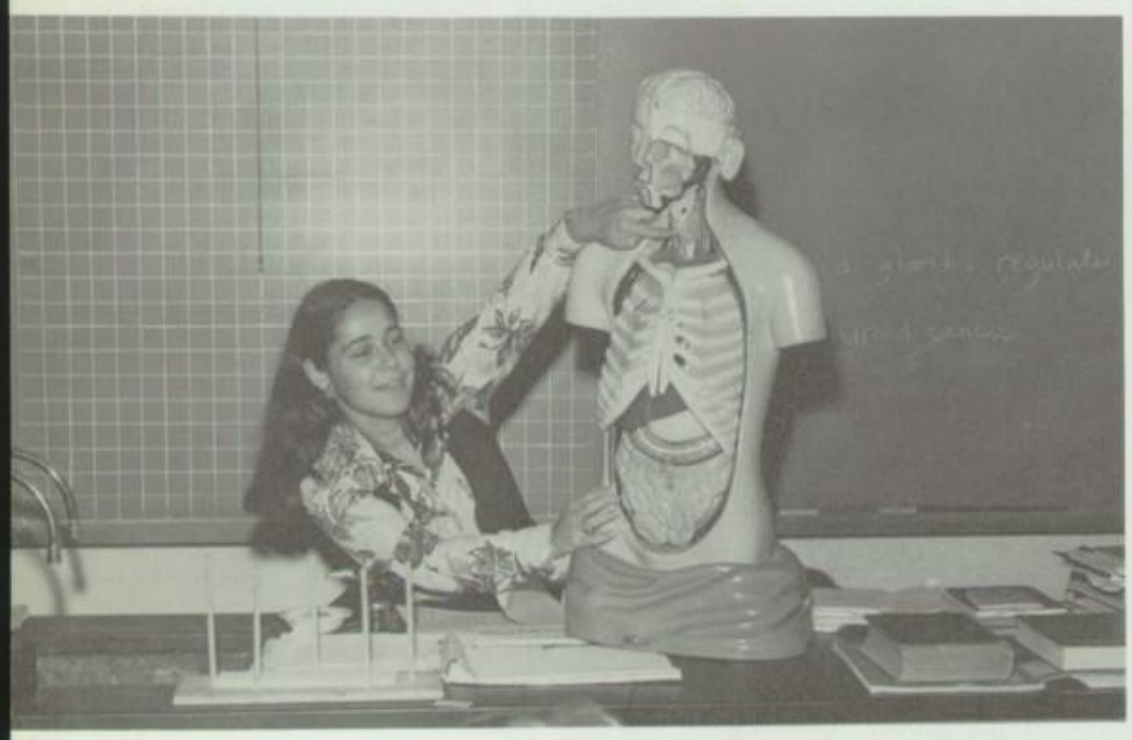


And have you been wondering who the strange hieroglyphics in K-2 belong to? It's Lou Pesce (right) the only man with a picture of the Pope mowing his lawn.

We can't forget Donald Wilks (left) the "Our Economy" instructor who is solely responsible for the perpetuation of the New York Times.

And of course, John Wirchansky, (right) chief of the luau, master chef, exotic dancer, the bouncer of K-study and all around nice guy.

Over in C Building are the science teachers. Beginning with Tom O'Day (below) department CHAIRMAN who holds the world record for the junior to senior high dash. Have you ever seen a man walking around C building who looks like he belongs in "Dr. Zhivago"? That's Charlie Mandia (right) whose fur ensemble has been turning freezing students green with envy.



You can always tell sophomores by their "Regents Biology" books. And this year, Sue Appel (above) is doing a great job as their instructor.

science and health

Here's Herbie Lightner (below) with his famous "You little devil!" which, along with his quest for aluminum cans, has become the trademark he just can't get rid of.

Then there's Terry Johnston (left) who knows the vicissitudes of the chemistry of life.

If you've ever needed a movie projector or a record player, you'll recall the always eager-to-help Brainard "Red" Gibson (above) whose tenant rodents help to create a less than comfortable odor throughout C-3.

Robert Anderson (above) is the health instructor whose more ambitious students can be found lying on the floor bandaged from head to toe as they work towards their "First Aid" certificates. We must mention Larry Benjamin (left). His worry over his chemistry student's safety leads him to constantly remind them, "Put on your safety glasses!" By the way Larry, where are yours?

Down in A building, we find Math Department Chairman John Murphy (right) stepping out of his cubicle with a twinkle in his eye and a handful of rare intermediate algebra books. If you've ever wondered who that man is hot on the trail of a piece of runaway chalk, it's Robert Stanhope (below) who just missed a hookshot to the chalk tray.

And Bernard Sweeney (right) who has been proclaimed A-GOOD-GUY by his faithful computer in A-1. By the way Bernie, is it up or down?

As we enter A-3 we hear Art Goudey (above) advising his students, "The next time you're out with your best girl, instead of saying something stupid like I love you, try wooing her with a Pythagorean triple."

In A-6 is Frank Fleischer (above) whose Leo Club brings a wholesome touch to John Jay ... and the best Italian lasagne in the world!

Down the hall is Mike Kirk (left) asking the proverbial question, "Can we go on now?" Then there's Bob Butterfield (below) with his lethal compass diligently patrolling the halls during YOUR free period.

language

A hop, skip and a jump from the library is B building. First, we encounter Jackie Logan (below) the Spanish teacher who moonlights as the enlightened instructor of "Woman Today".

Down the hall in B-5 is Dolly Chary (below) – "You must have faith in me; the only alternative is chaos."

Then we encounter Rosie Angulo (left) who wants her students to talk, think, even react in Spanish. "En Espanol, siempre, en Espanol!"

Next is Cecilie Court-right (left) who should get a prize for the most ingenious license plate in the John Jay parking lot.

In the gym is Martin Todd (right) who heads the Physical Education Department with vim, vigor, and a couple of half deflated volleyballs. Then there's Missy Larzelere (below) whose artistic talents enhance even the girls' cut lists.

And of course, Ron Lyons (below) renowned throughout Westchester for coaching John Jay's fabulous football team!

physical education

driver education

In driver education there's Bobby Kear (left) whose hilarious stories about his high school days keep his students in stitches. (Hopefully, not when they're driving.)

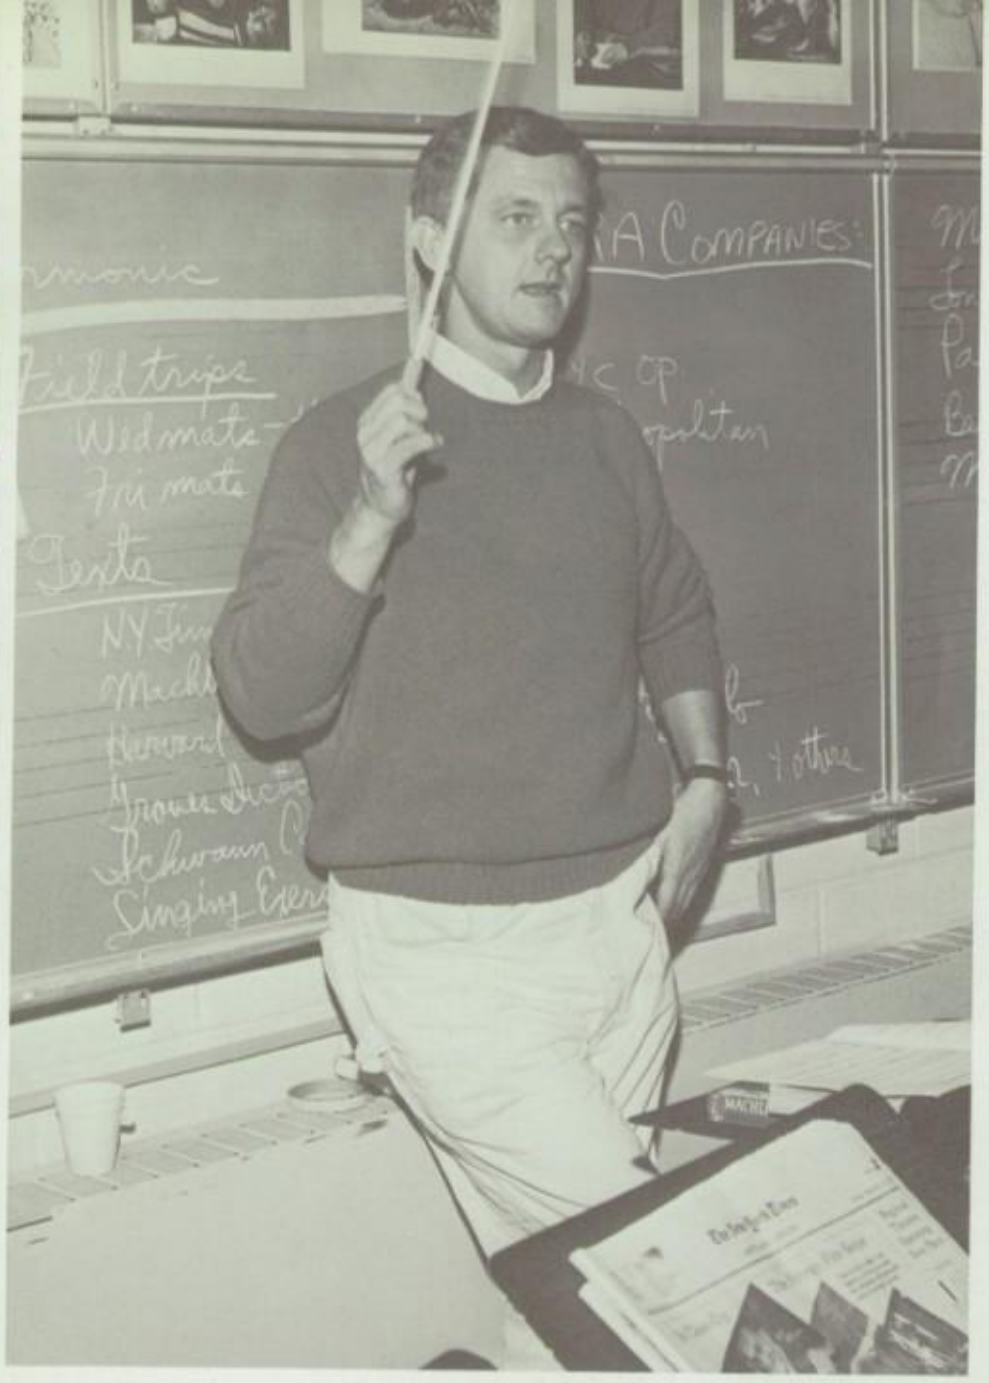
In the Art department we find John Ticknor (right) whose constant interrogation into the private lives of tardy students keeps them running frantically to get to class on time.

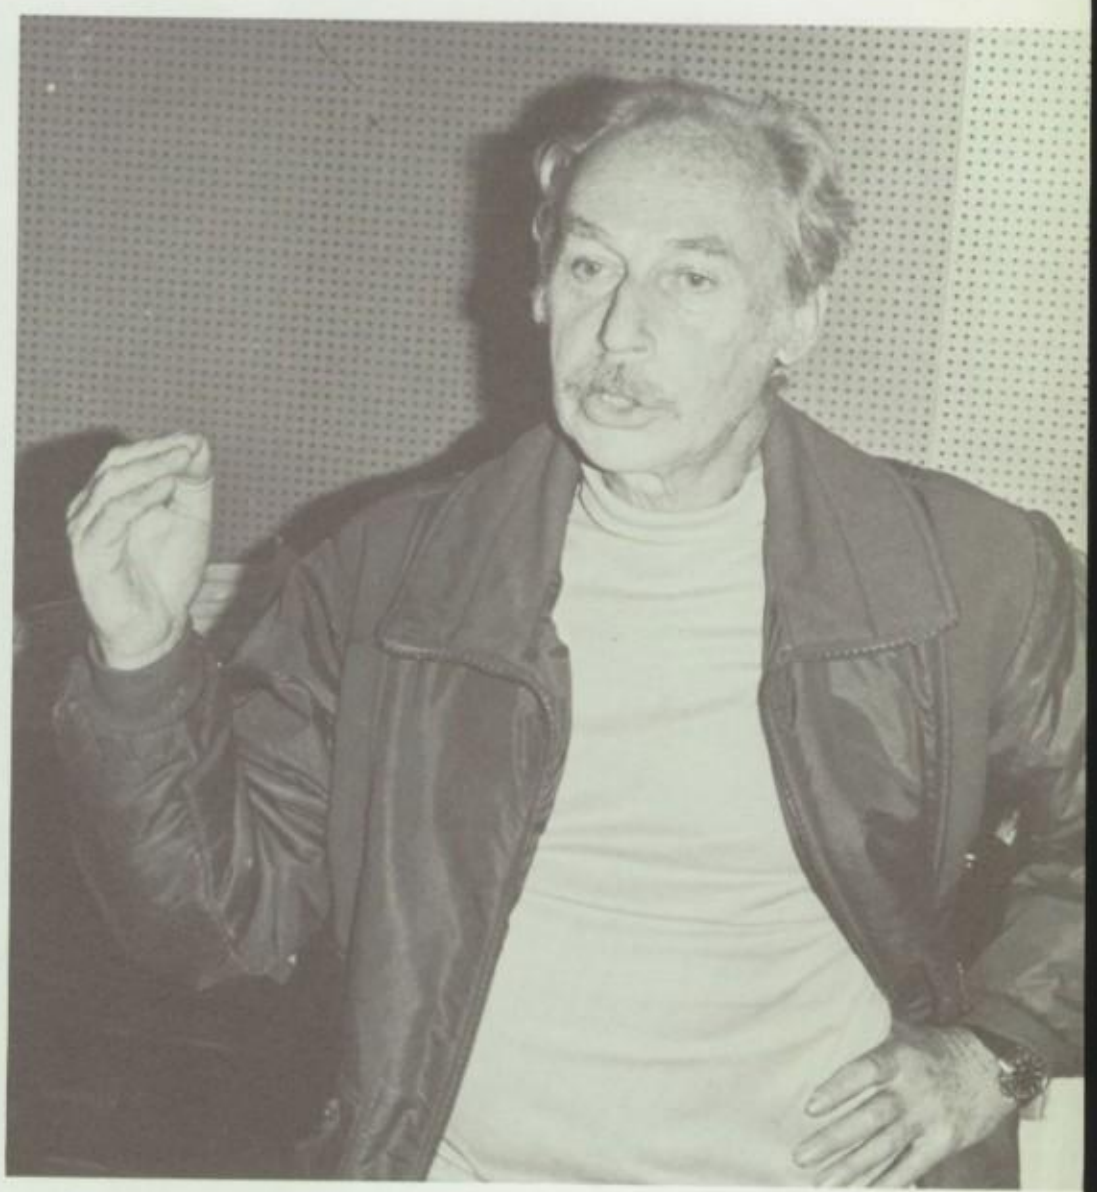
And here's David Westfall (above) with his nose to the grindstone as usual. Next is Sally Todd (right) whose eternal vivaciousness always manages to evade the issue at hand and result in, "Now what was I getting for you?"

Then there's Darlene Roth (above) who brings an artistic touch to the Faculty Club as this year's co-president.

music



The counterpart to Art is Music and the Coordinator here is Gil Freeman (left) whose artistic temperament and ability have given us so many memorable performances. And an integral part of those performances is our orchestra conductor Paul Ehrlich (below) whose constant accusation is "Don't be flat, be natural."



Meeting with our band five days a week in addition to leading the Jazz Band is our stalwart Bill Krinsky (left).

sports

Jill: Okay, O.K., tell us why the yearbook should focus on the sports.

O.K.: Well, let me begin at the beginning.

Adida: Good start, O.K..

O.K.: Like, what can I say about the John Jay Football Team that hasn't been said already? To put it as modestly as I can . . .

Adida: Modestly?

1976 JOHN JAY INDIANS

O.K.: Yeah. Now where was I? Oh yeah, to put it as modestly as I can, we were great. We literally overpowered every team with our explosive offense that scored over 180 points. I want to tell ya . . .

ADIDA: Hey, O.K.. What about the PEEKSKILL game?

O.K.: Well, if you're gonna get picky. Anyhow, you can't say that the football team didn't provide excitement. Take the last game for example. J.F.K.'s ball on John Jay's 12 yard line . . . 54 seconds left. The kick is up. It's . . . it's . . . NO GOOD! JOHN JAY WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP! Now that's what I call exciting. Not only that, but more guys got All League recognition this year than ever before. Eleven to be exact. And both Joe Breen and Mike Wright made All County.

ADIDA: So what else?

Honorable Mention All League – Rob Nemmeth (right) and John Pirc (far right).

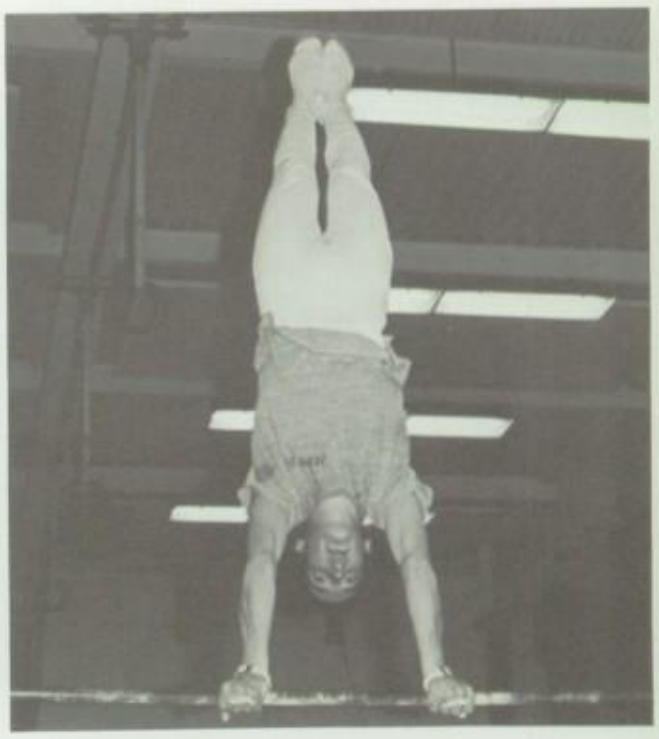
But

gymnastics

O.K.: And of course gymnastics. Although they didn't have a great team record this year — hey, what can I say, gymnastics is really an individual sport. It probably takes more effort to be a good gymnast than it does for me to keep up my superstar image. Anyhow, Brian Scallon, Matt Dunn, and Paul Rubeo made it to the sectionals where both Matt and Paul tied for third in vaulting and just missed going to the states. Just wait until next year.



Row 1 — P. Rubeo, M. Dunn, B. Scallon, M. Davin, Row 2 — P. Towey, R. Ferrara, G. Grammis, C. Sanders, B. Davin, Coach Cutler, Row 3 — E. Hunter, K. Piker, R. Reyes, J. Ciliberto, Missing — P. Wolfel, E. Lippman, C. Dauler, J. Scolten.

O.K.: Let me see, that brings us to . . . soccer.

Adida: I didn't know John Jay had a good team.

O.K.: You've gotta be kidding! Where have you been? They finished 10-4-2 and were undefeated in non-league games. You should have seen 'em rack up the points, booting ten goals one game and nine the next. They got into the sectionals but were knocked off by a tough Scarsdale team. Wayne McLean, a co-captain, made All-County and Bob Boissy, the other co-captain, Doug Pickert and Bob Diebold were voted All-League. And that J.V. team was also impressive. I hate to say it but Soccer is up and coming at John Jay.

O.K.: Now that takes us into winter sports. The basketball team had a tough season and finished with a five-thirteen record. We did have some good games though, like that sixty-six – fifty-seven overtime victory over Somers. Both Pete Blackmore, who made All-League, and Greg Pojednic were among the top fifteen scorers in the area.

O.K.: The wrestling team showed a lot of individual talent. Although they won just 3 of 12, Rich Mold, for example, wound up 20-0 for the season. In the divisionals, Gregg Davis, Ed Sitar, and Rich Mold all finished second. In the sectionals, Rich made up for his only loss by becoming Section champ. Not too bad.

golf

O.K.: Now, The spring season should prove to be a good one. I know the golf team this year is ready to make up for the tough time they had last season. With some talented new players joining the veterans Kirk Larsen, Eric Soderlund, Mike Wright, Larry Rosenfeld and John Cable, they should be right up there with the top teams in the area

tennis

O.K.: Let's see, what else is there?

Adida: Tennis!

O.K.: Very good! . . . I'll tell you, Tennis is probably the most consistent sport we have here at John Jay. These guys will be going for their 11th straight league title. And this year's team, which has three easternly ranked players, is the strongest and most explosive one ever. Led by Coach Vreeland and co-captains Doug Treyz and Jay Gepfert, they could find their way into the State Championships.

Co-captains Doug Treyz, Jay Gepfret

O.K.: The track team also shows a lot of potential and should have a shot at the league title. We've got heading the field events – Roy Peterson in the shot put, Mike Gooden in the discus and Pete Blackmore in the high jump. And on the track, seniors Joe Reyes and John Fitzgerald, juniors John Butterworth and Norman Kenyon and sophomores Skip Kuhn and Paul Pezzello. With the help Coach Buckout and Coach Pesce, this should be one of the best team's we've had in a long time.

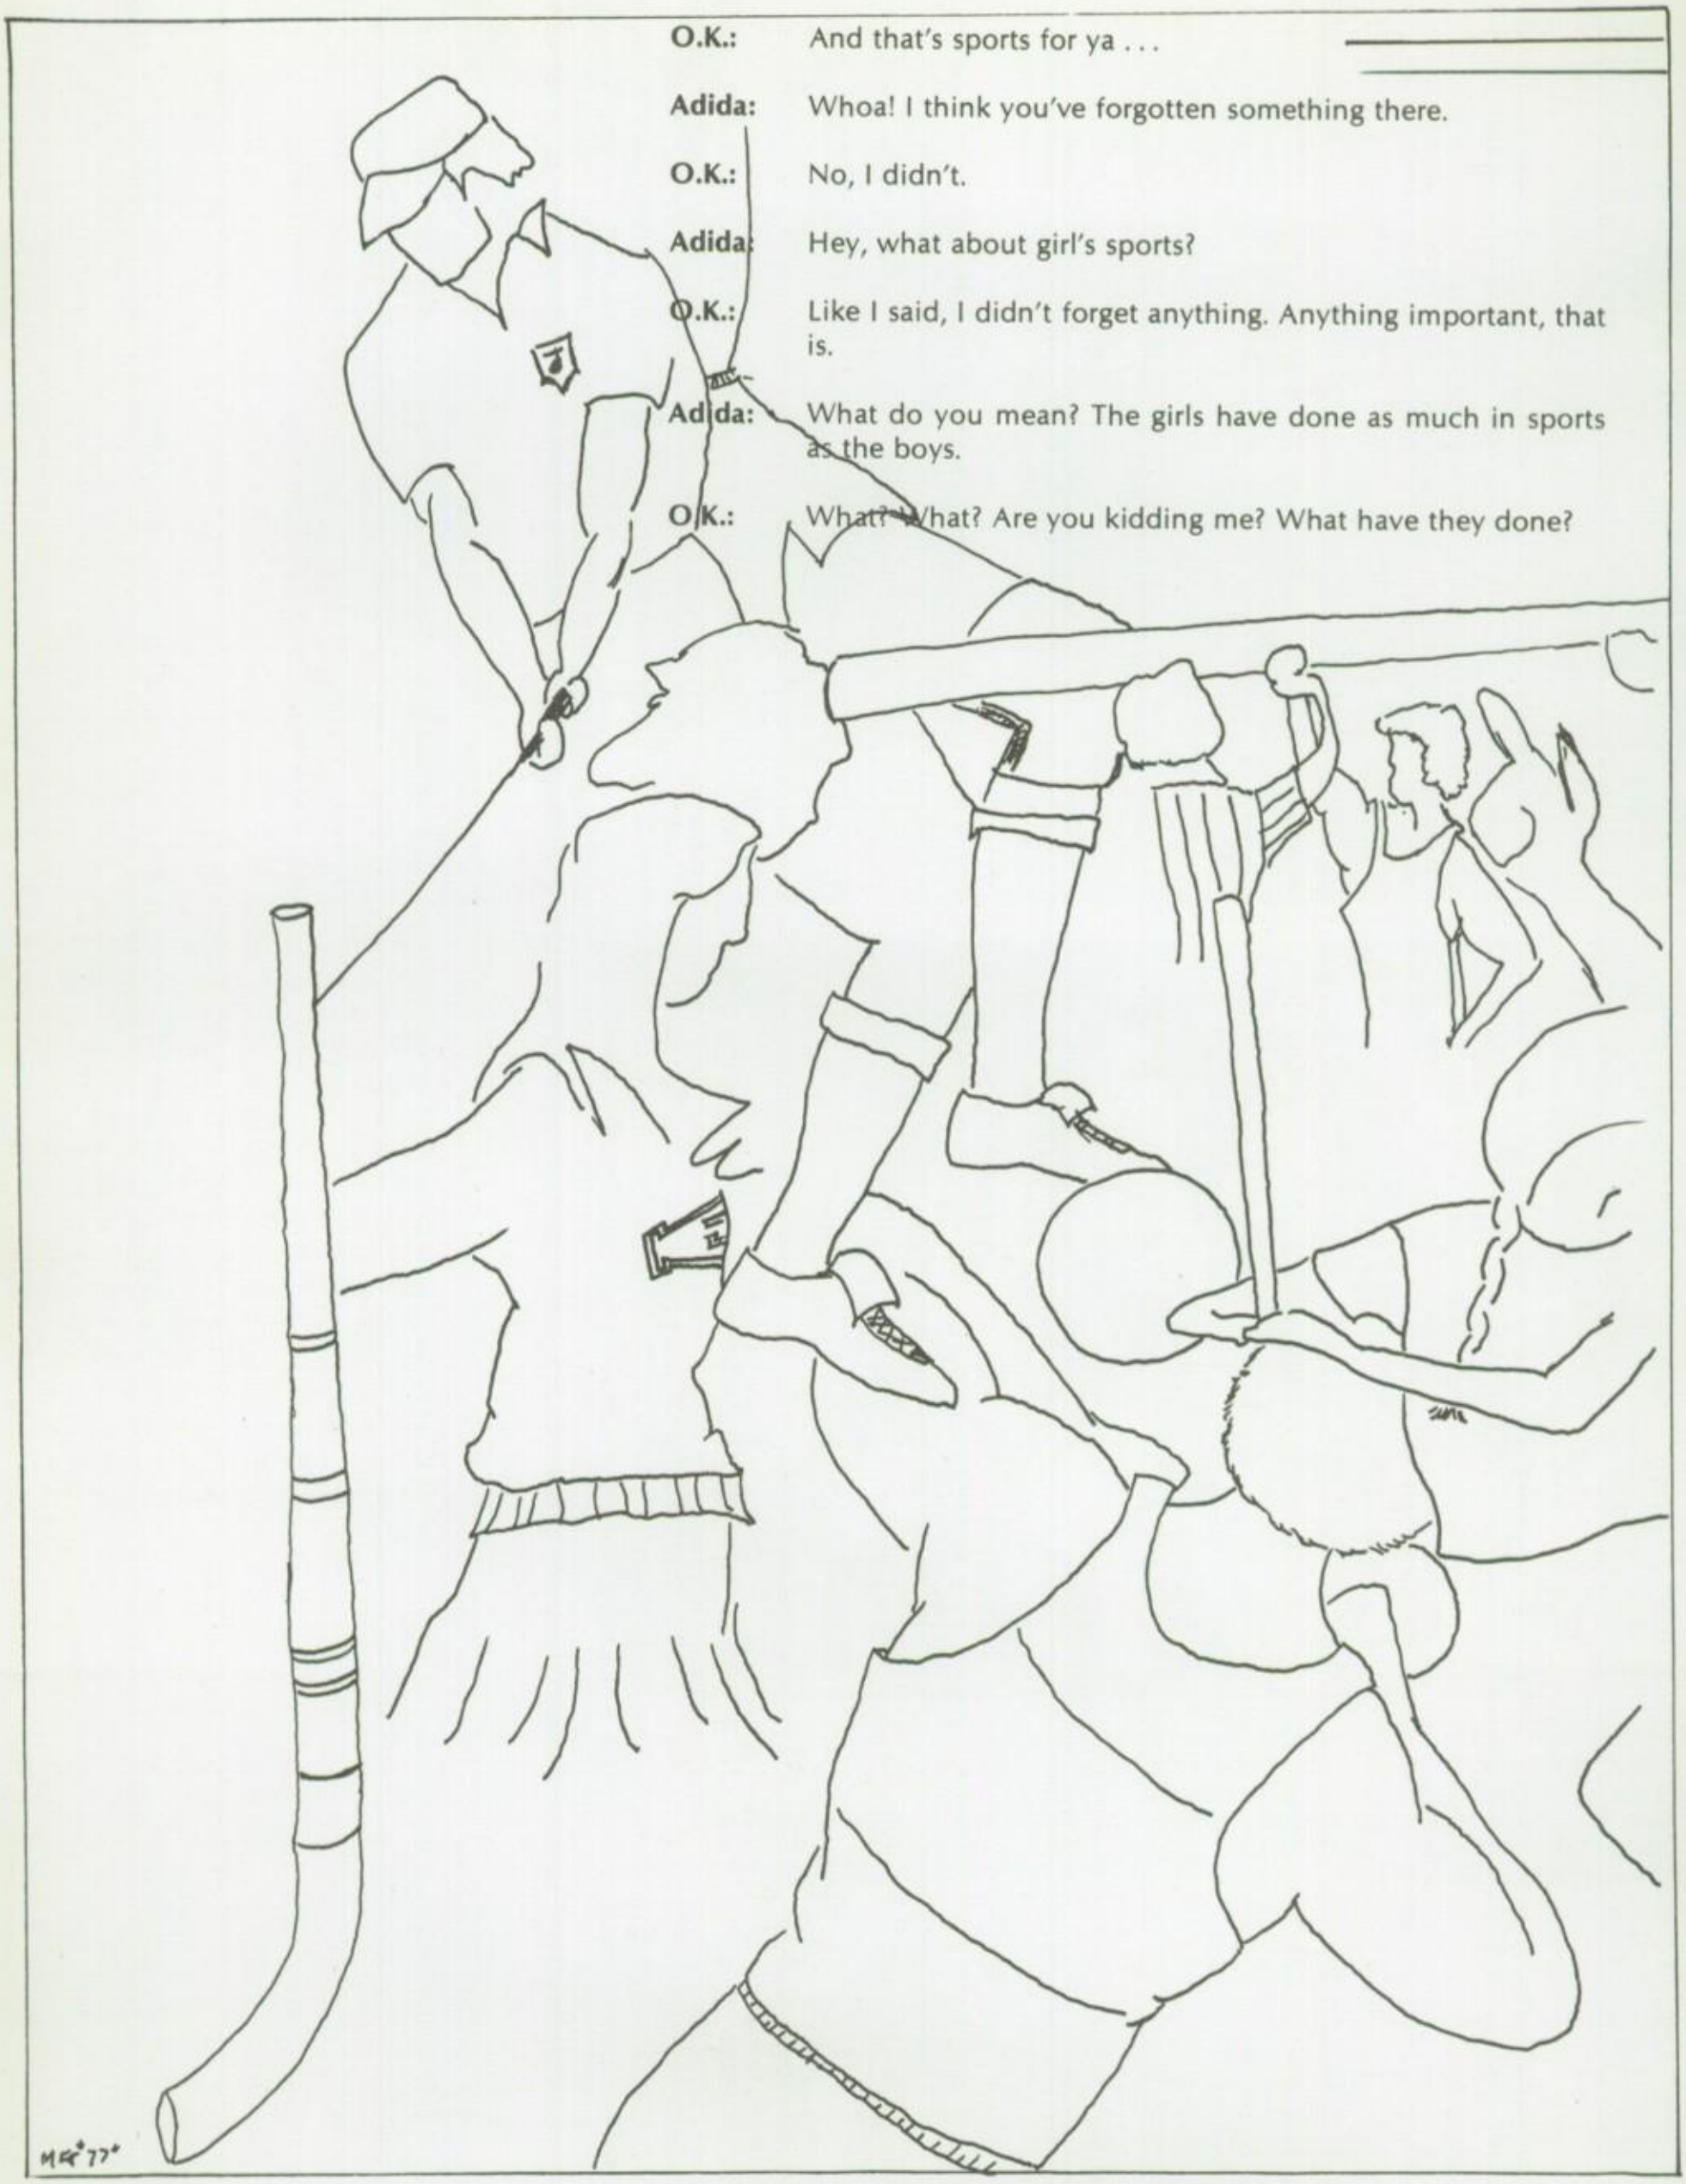
O.K.: And finally baseball. They've got 8 players returning from last year, with co-captains Jim Bretti and Tom Orlando leading the way. Even though they're entering a different league, the team still looks strong. Bruce Connor and John Pirc will head the pitching department and Joe Genovesi, Fred Rosenberg, Marty Todd, and Peter Gabarro will be backing them up. With the upcoming juniors giving some added depth to the team it looks like a winning baseball season.

FUTURE



O.K.: And that's sports for ya . . .
Adida: Whoa! I think you've forgotten something there.
O.K.: No, I didn't.
Adida: Hey, what about girl's sports?
O.K.: Like I said, I didn't forget anything. Anything important, that is.
Adida: What do you mean? The girls have done as much in sports as the boys.
O.K.: What? What? Are you kidding me? What have they done?

Co-captains – Roberta Lippman, Nancy Shapero.

ADIDA: Let's take field hockey for example. A 7-3-1 record isn't anything to scoff at.

O.K.: Who's scoffing?

ADIDA: We finished second in the sectionals where a tie-breaking penalty stroke was the difference in the game with Scarsdale who eventually made it to the semi-finals. Nancy Shapero, Ann Daur, Roberta Lippman and Sharon Sarsen made All League. And Roberta Lippman, who led the team in scoring, also made All County. What about that?

O.K.: Allright, I'll give you that one.

ADIDA Just one? What about this year's volleyball team?

volleyball

O.K.: Yeah, so what about them?

ADIDA: Nothing much, only that they won their league with a 15-3 record and had a 12 game winning streak during the season. They even got by the first round of the sectionals, but unfortunately lost to Greeley in the second. That's some season, huh.

O.K.: Not bad, not bad.

ADIDA: You're really something, O.K.. You just can't admit that girls' sports are important too, can you? They even had three All-Leaguers – Melissa Dewey, Debbie Perkins, and Robin Olson, who also made All County.

Adida: As we got into the winter, the girls, like the boys, seemed to lose their winning ways. But then again both teams are young and show a lot of potential. The gymnastic team, which started off well, finished 5-7 overall and placed three girls in the sectionals – Kathy Bartels, Deirdre Gramas, and Diane Van Akin. And at the Yorktown Invitational, Jill Siegfried placed third on vaulting, and Toni Carideo placed third on the uneven bars.

Co-captains – Ellen Mehne, Kathy Ferentini Coach Jones

Adida: The basketball team, on the other hand, started off slowly and improved as the season progressed. Even though they only won three games, most of their losses were by a close margin. Who could forget that exciting game against first place Westlake in which we lost by one point? With Sharon Sarsen, (who made All-League) and Kathy Ferentini (who received Honorable Mention) leading the way, we can expect a great season next year.

Co-captain Julie Salerno, Coach Larzelere, co-captain Vicky Giardina.

J.V. Row 1 – Tina Foley, Cindy Gibson, Cathy Harder, Suzie Hess, Mary Dorsett. Row 2 – Mary Ellen Kane, Jill Dusenberry, Jill Frieary, Joyce Foley, Mimi Penney, Karen Anderson. Row 3 – Julie Salerno, Miss Larzelere, Vicky Giardina, Julie Larsen.

Missing: Lisa Reager.

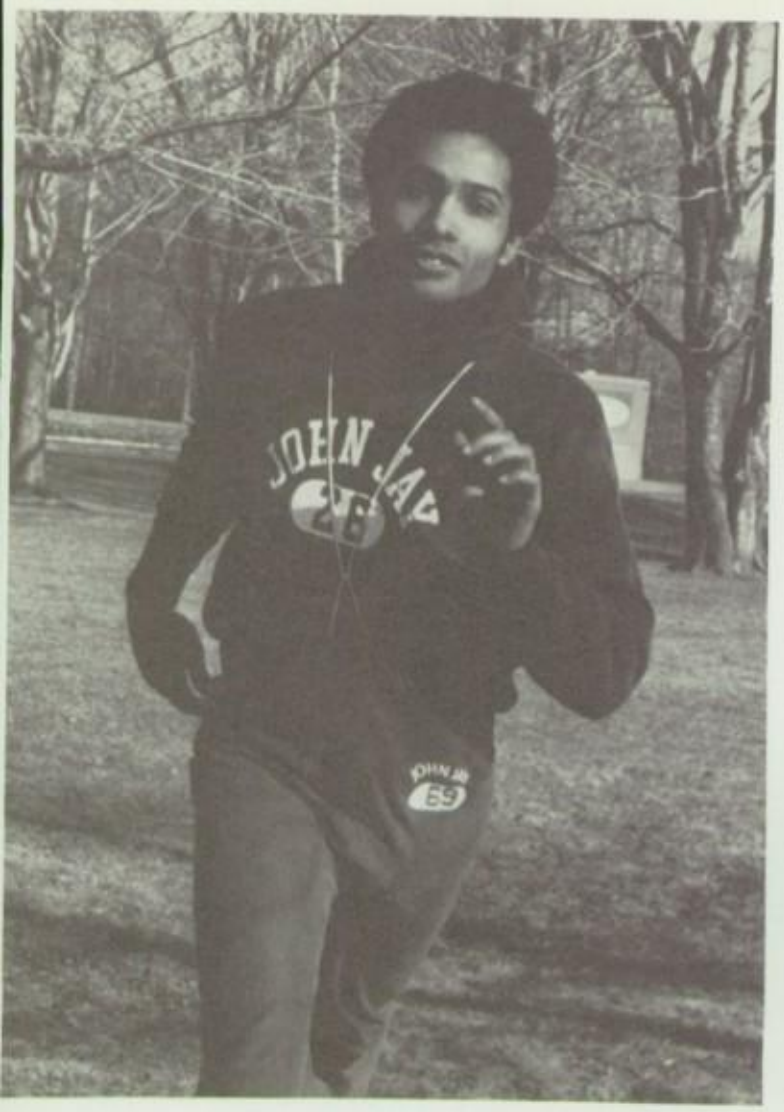
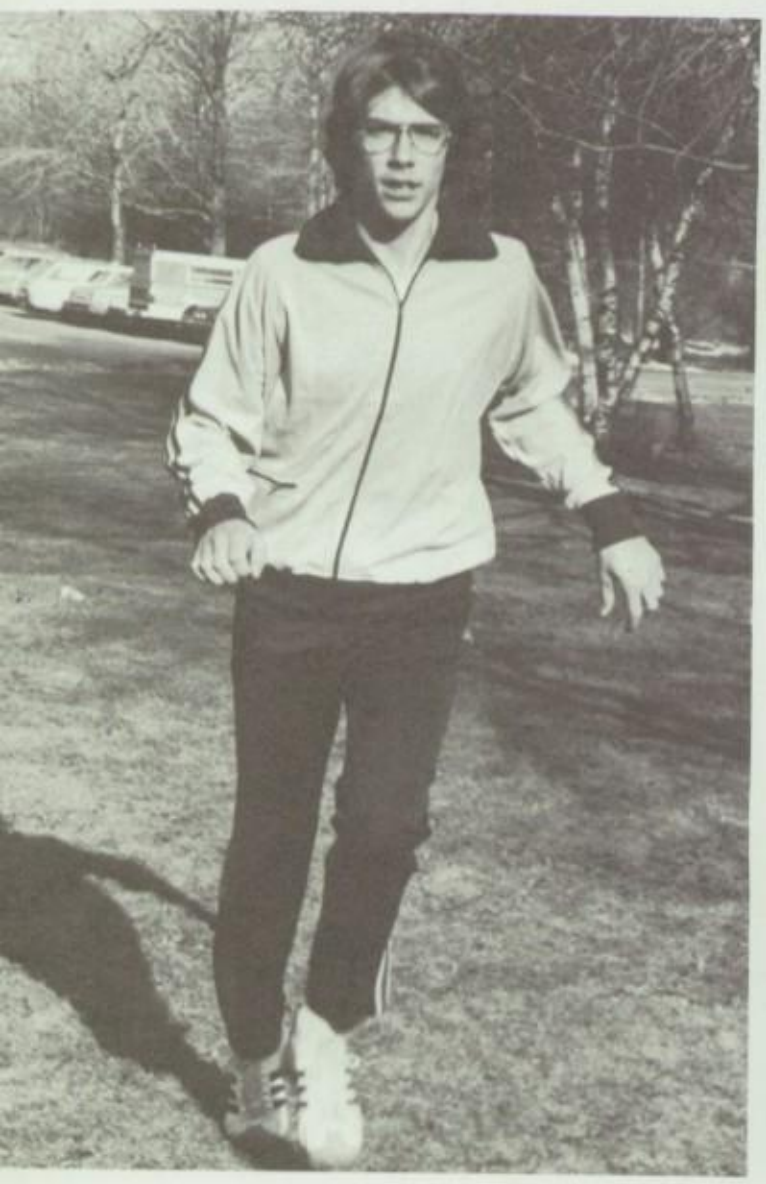
cross country

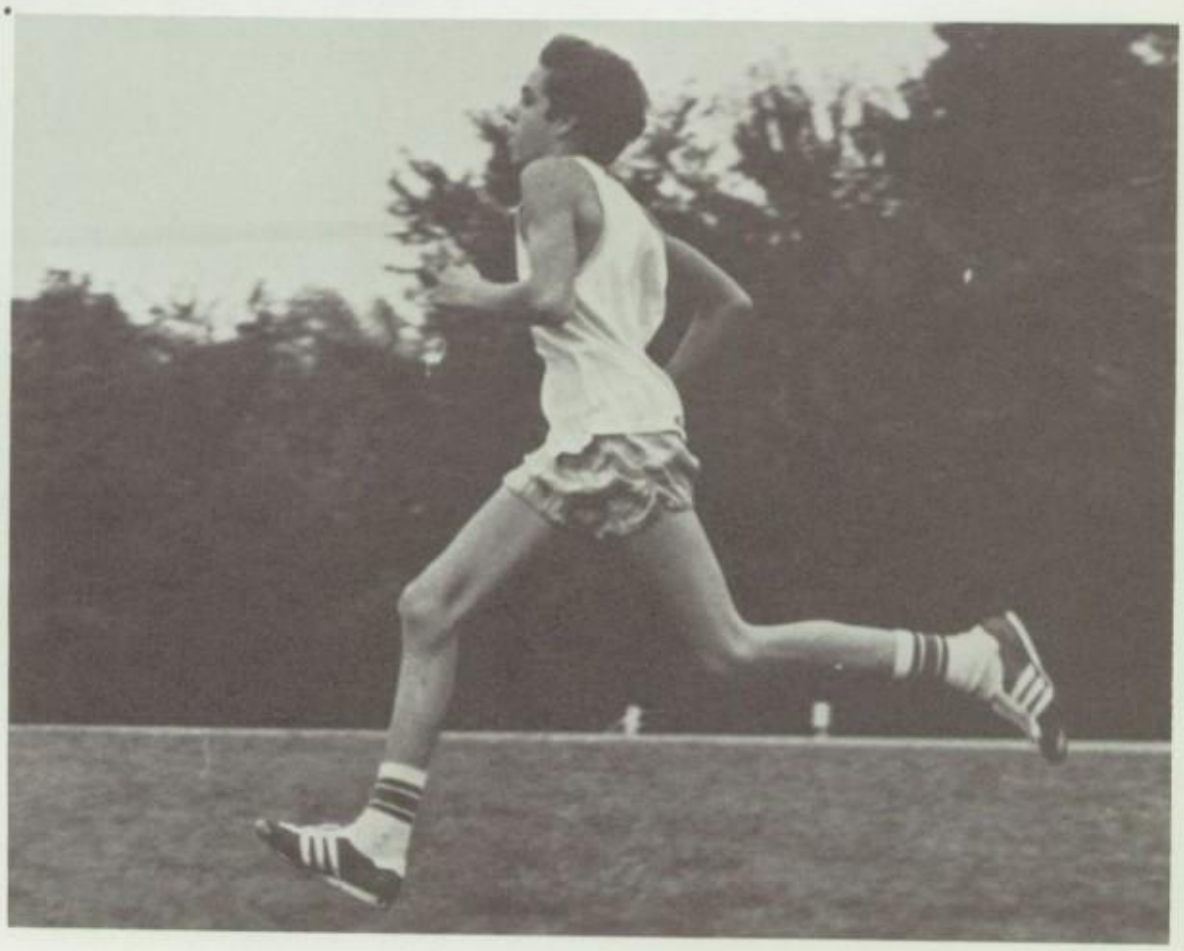




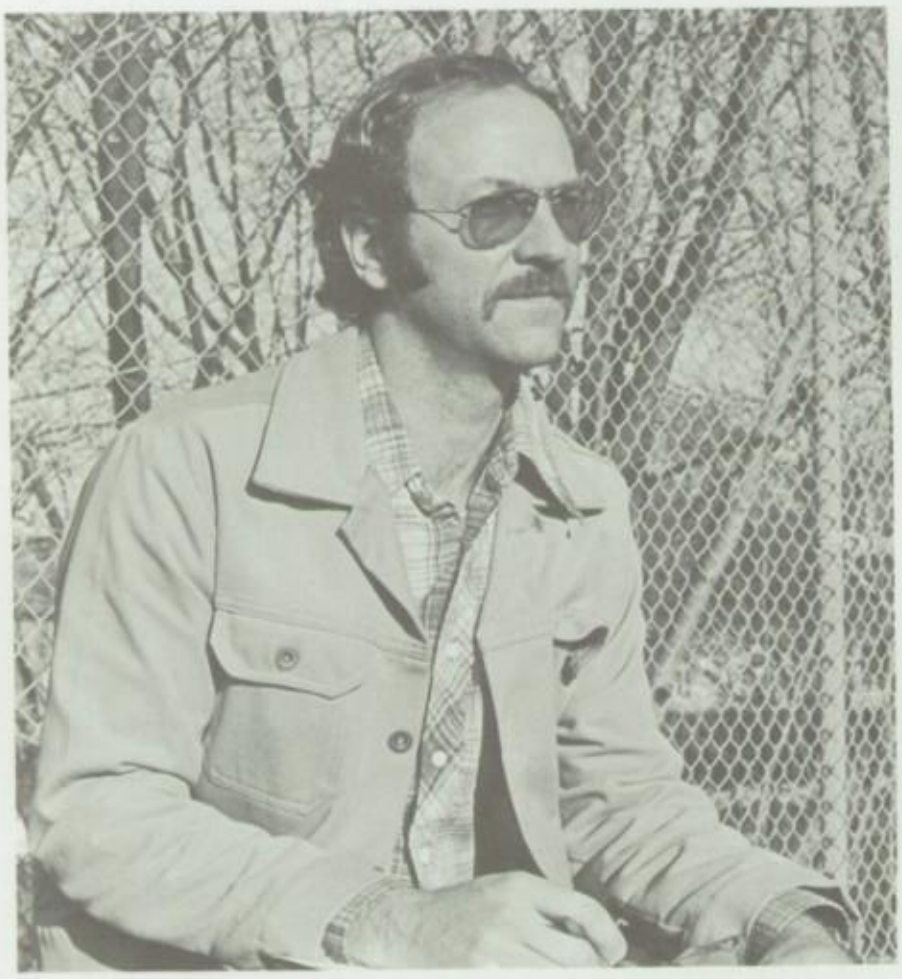
Adida: The girl's cross country team finished with a record of 4 and 1. Lisa Reager (below), a sophomore, broke records right and left and eventually went to the states.

O.K.: The boy's cross country team didn't come up with one of their better efforts this year – only winning two of seven meets, but they did do better at the sectionals than they have for the past four years. They'll make up for it in track.

Adida: Do you mind?



tennis



Adida: The girl's tennis team has a lot of experience behind it. They have 9 players returning to face their toughest schedule ever. They're expecting good performances from this year's captain Wendy Beattie as well as Chris Schuck, Maggie Kane and Debbie Parkins. Deirdre Breen and Lisa Brunetta should make a strong doubles team.

Adida: Although there's been so much snow, rain and wind this spring, all the teams are showing a lot of effort. The track team, for example, looks really strong. They have a lot of girls coming back from last year including the members of their winning relay team – Anne Daur, Kathy Simonsen, Katie Smith, Robin Olson and Debbie Johnson. Robin and Debbie, who are Co-captains, expect a winning season.

Adida: And to top off the girl's sports there's softball. Under the coaching of Ms. Jones and with veteran players like Nancy Shapero, Cindy Foley and Roberta Lippman, the team will try to match the feat of their 1975 counterparts and win it all. Now THAT'S sports for ya ... What's the matter O.K.? You've been so quiet.

O.K.: Oh, you're done? I was beginning to think we were going to spend the night here.

Adida: Now are you ready to admit the girl's sports are important too?

O.K.: Well, in order to save myself from having to listen to you for another hour, I'll admit that girl's sports have their place. Well, now that we've settled on sports as the focus we can all leave.

activities

Jill: Hold on, O.K. We haven't heard from Jackie and Oliver yet. Jackie?

Jackie: Come on guys, really. Activities are what gives this place its personality. John Jay would be just another drab, uninteresting school without them. There's something for everyone – like orchestra, band, jazz band and choir for the musically inclined. And Sock n Buskin for those aspiring actors.

Oliver: To be or not to . . .

O.K.: Hang it up, ollie.

Jackie: For the European at heart there are the language clubs. And for the future politicians, Student Council and Youth in Government. There are Focus and Reflections for the newshounds and budding authors. And there's Chess Club and the Math Team for those who enjoy the thrill of victory . . .

O.K.: And the agony of defeat.

Jackie: And Astronomy Club for the night owl, and R.E.A.C.T. for the C.B.ers, and . . .

Denise: I think we get the point, Jackie.

Jackie: Wait, I'm not done. And N.H.S. for those who get in, and Websters for the dictionary buff, and A.F.S. for the traveler, and Key Club for the worker and last but certainly not least, STATESMAN for the insane. I mean really guys; it's only natural that the STATESMAN this year, or every year for that matter, focus on activities, right?

Oliver: Wrong!

events

Oliver: T'is truly a shame and a mishap not to be taken lightly that you have o'erlooked the one major and undeniably most important factor of our existence at John Jay.

Jackie: And what is that?

Oliver: Couldst thou perceive of a school year of unrelenting academic pressure with nothing to release the gripping tension of strict scholastics?

Arnold: Sheer heaven!

Denise: (to Arnold) When did you last see a doctor?

Oliver: Thou wouldst have trouble denying the felicity the students showed when the numerous events which hath occurred here came round.

O.K.: (aside) Boy! Is he long-winded!

Mr. Weatherbee: Why don't you give us some examples, Oliver?

Oliver: Certainly. The aspirations which this ingenious body of students and tutors alike are inclined to unfold during the ten moons we spend here, are among the most extraordinary and divers feats ever accomplished.

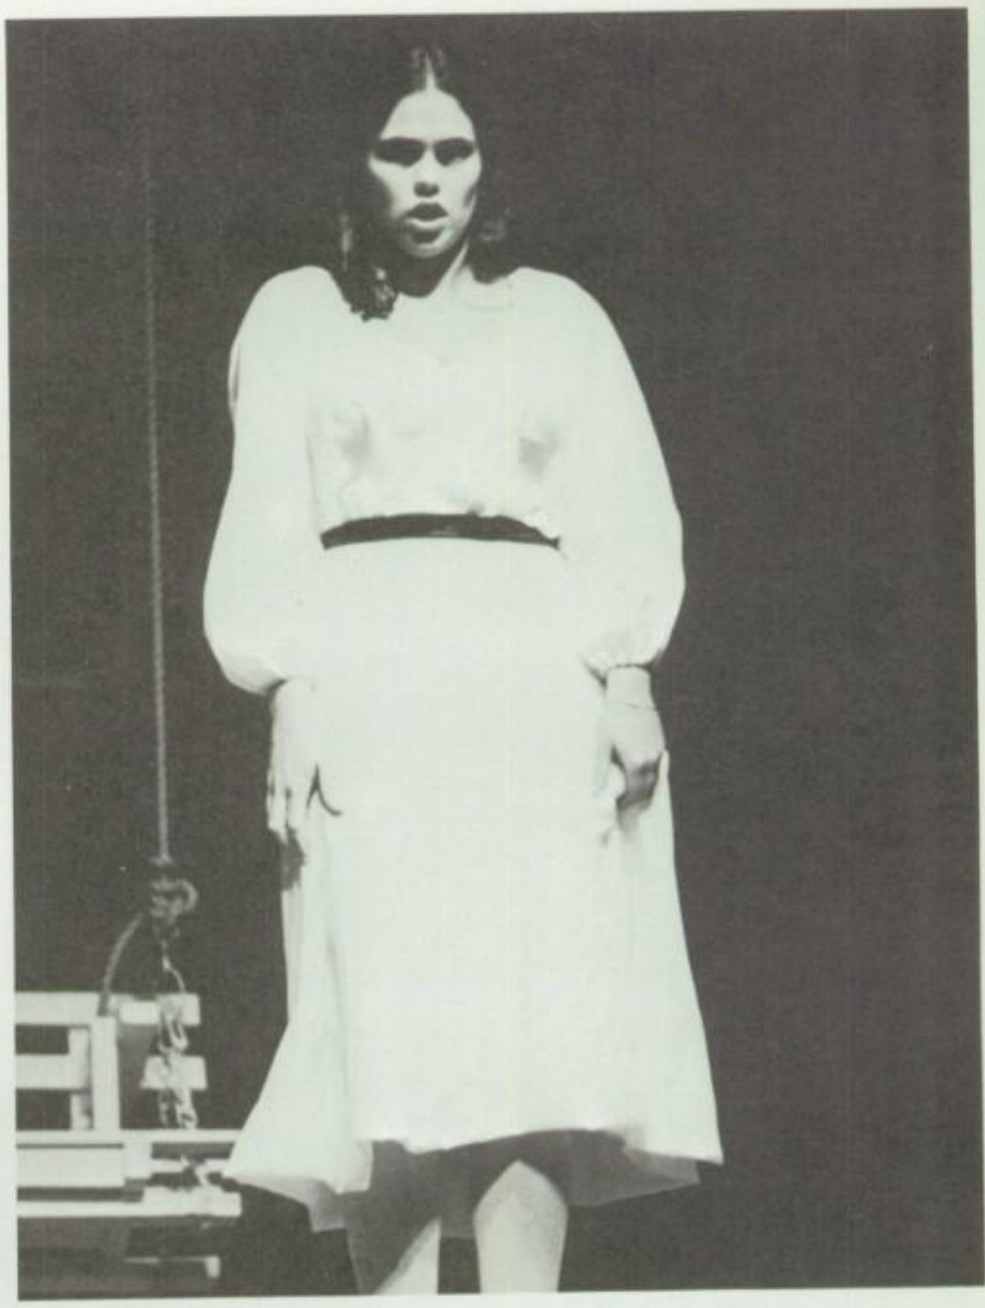
"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING"

A comedy by William Shakespeare

John Jay High School

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4 — 8:00 p.m. $2.50



Once again the John Jay stage was fit to introduce many a comic plot. Behind a veil of unrelenting laughter, the weather changed between the fire of passion and the ice of nonchalance as young thespians acted out Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing." Shrouded in couplets divine, we of the twentieth century (which prides itself on unmatched sophistication) found ourselves sighing like romantics in the bloom of love over the Elizabethan images and language. Quite a shock t'was when we discovered that the centuries between us posed no gulf at all.

Hardly had the new moon shown full again, when young men and women met to dance and celebrate the most auspicious of occasions, the Campus Queen and BMOC Dance. Winning the coveted titles were Sue Perreten and Mike Gooden, who accepted the honor in a most grand and gallant style.

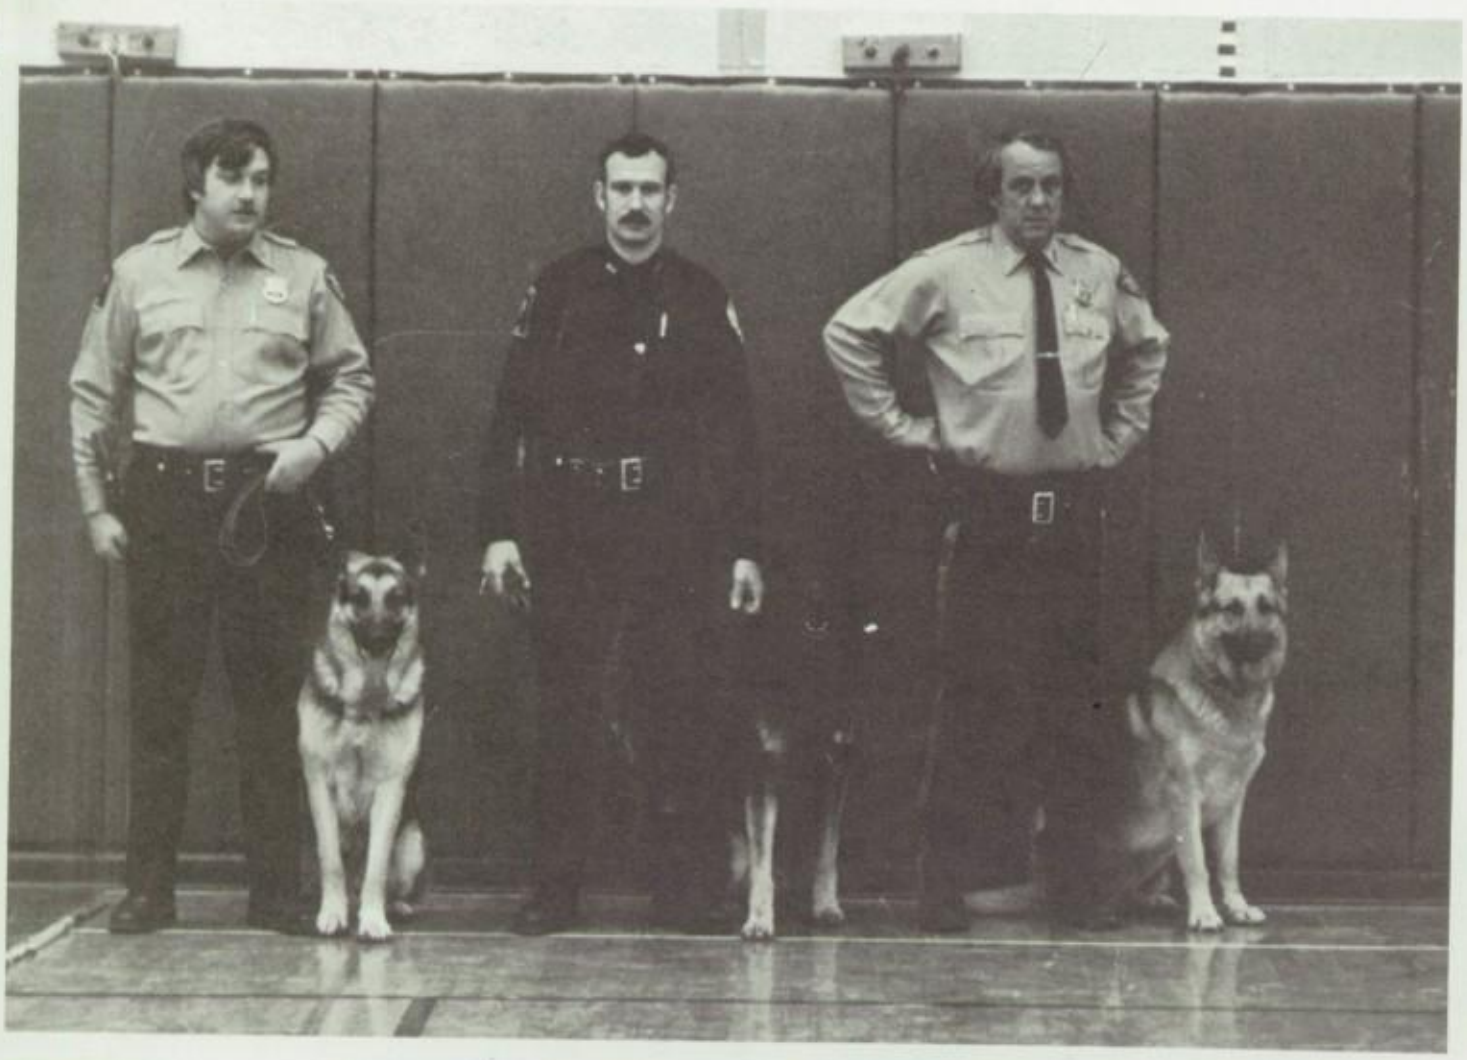
christmas play

Frosty breath was soon visible outside and shivers penalized poorly clothed bodies, as the seniors engaged themselves in the doings of the Christmas Play. With a round of choral odes and a dramatization of the poetic contributions of the season, chimneys with faces and men fairies of perfect grace bedecked our stage in yuletide manner.

assemblies

Who would be eager to admit to restricting our already limited vision to humanity alone? As we found ourselves of much different opinion, we took great interest in the occupations of several dogs who constitute the "Canine Crew." Whether their mission be to rescue an endangered victim or to seek out an agitated volcano of circumstance, their dogs proved to be partners to mankind in all endeavors.



Another assembly gathered the student body into the auditorium for a presentation on the personal rights of young citizens. Among our prominent guests, who balanced the scales of justice as their professions, were several leaders of the community. We were grateful to be able to have them in our midst.

Just days before the election, political minds contrived strategies, verbal and eloquent to the finest degree, as dissent raged like thunder throughout the gym. Fighting hard to persuade the masses but still retaining dignity, we found our opponents desperately groping for powerful assertion. Yards of statistics and charts were hurled across the podium at the audience which openly thirsted for hearty dispute. Hopefully, we may one day ask the question of wherefore our intentions lay in such heated pursuit of a singular issue. For now, however, we must content ourselves with the belief that humanity needs discussions of like spirit and action with which to operate this woe – begone race.

variety show

Returning again to the stage of our delights, moments of rarer constitution could be found nowhere but at our beloved Variety Show. Boasting a triumph of boundless energy which kept the spectators in awed anticipation of the acts to follow and in a gusto of breathless excitement, the quest revealed many a buried treasure of talent at John Jay. Players of every sort displayed their theatrical flair while engaging in vignettes requiring an almost winged agility of the dancing men and women (although of times it proposed quite a perplexity as to which was which and which was not).

Love

Jackie: Well Jill, what's it going to be?

Jill: What's what going to be?

Jackie: The focus of the yearbook.

Jill: Oh, I've decided there's not going to be any.

Denise: Nothing like copping out on us, Jill.

Mr. Weatherbee: Well I agree with Jill!

Adida: What? What happened to all that "We teachers don't get enough respect" stuff?

Mr. Weatherbee: I just realized that it wouldn't be right to center the yearbook on faculty.

O.K.: That's for sure.

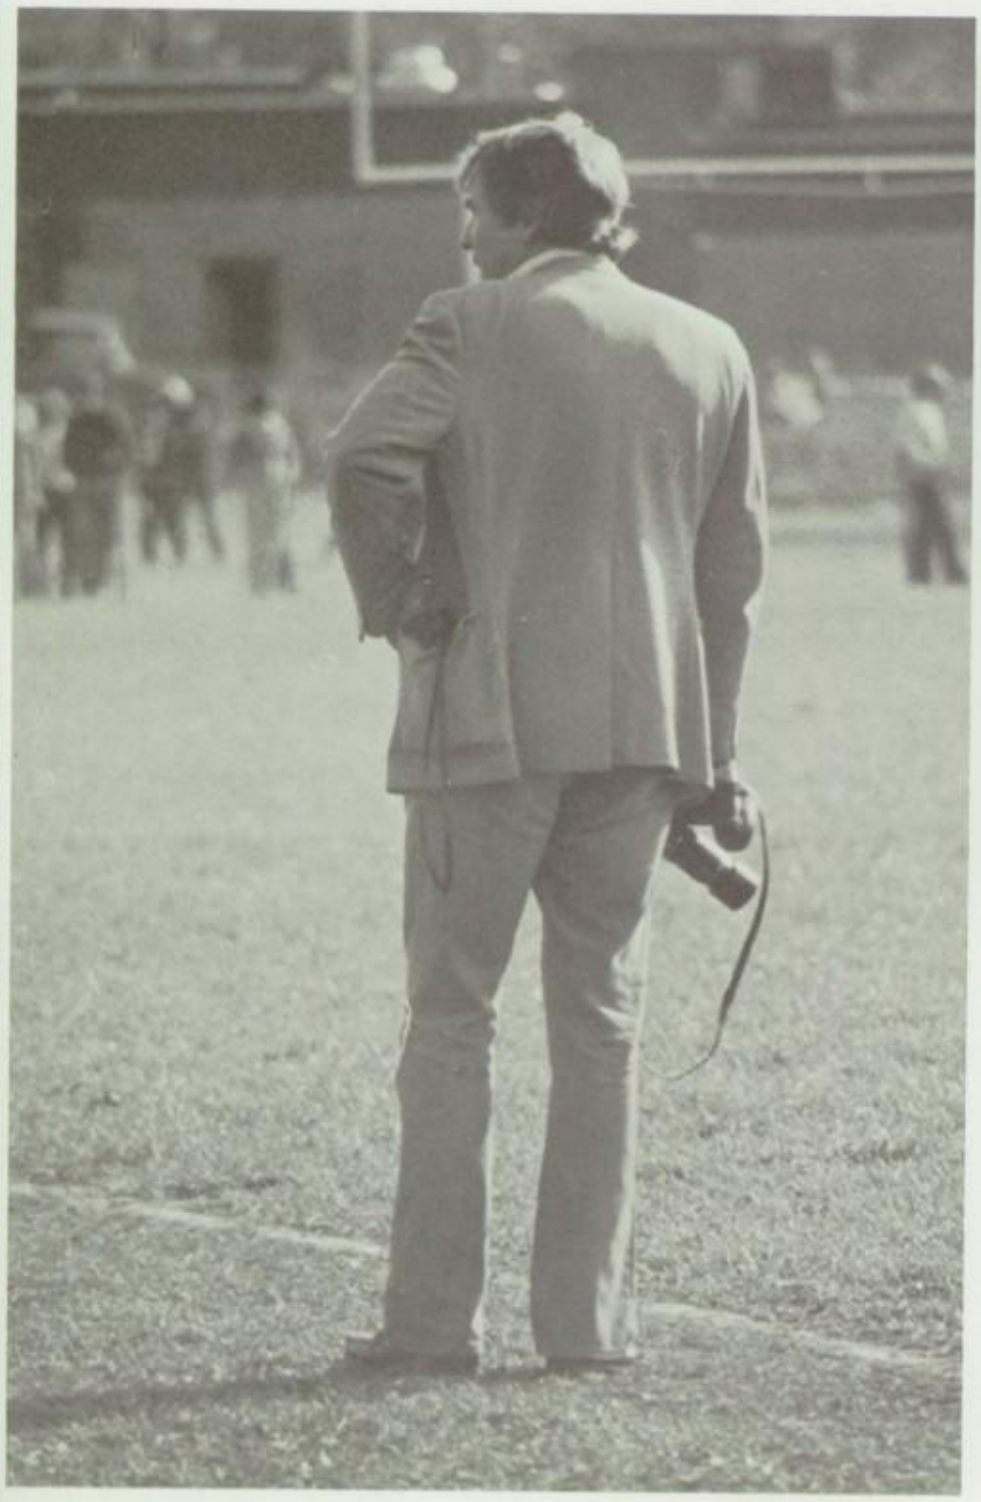
Mr. Weatherbee: Or . . . any other section for that matter. John Jay is a giant jig saw puzzle and each of the sections that we described make up that puzzle. Each piece is unique. However, each is dependent on the others. If you leave out one, you'll no longer have the complete picture. See what I mean?

All (except O.K.) Yes!

Mr. Weatherbee: What's the matter, O.K.? You look confused.

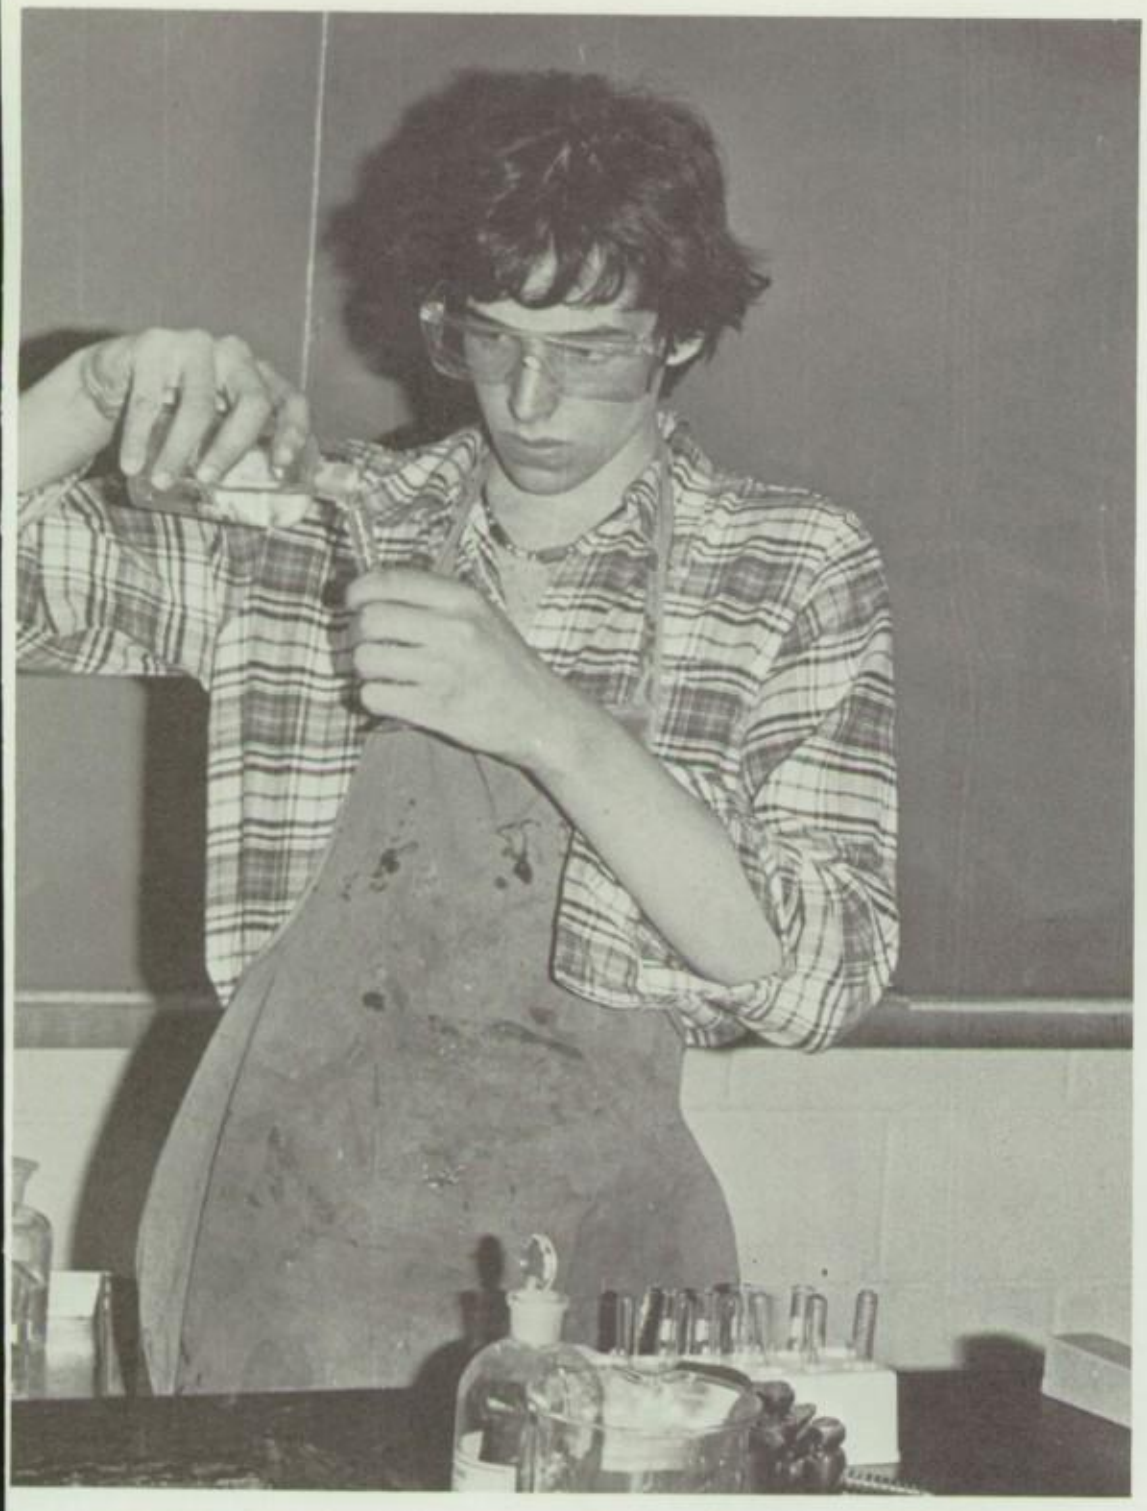
O.K.: I still don't understand what a jig saw puzzle has to do with centering the yearbook on sports.

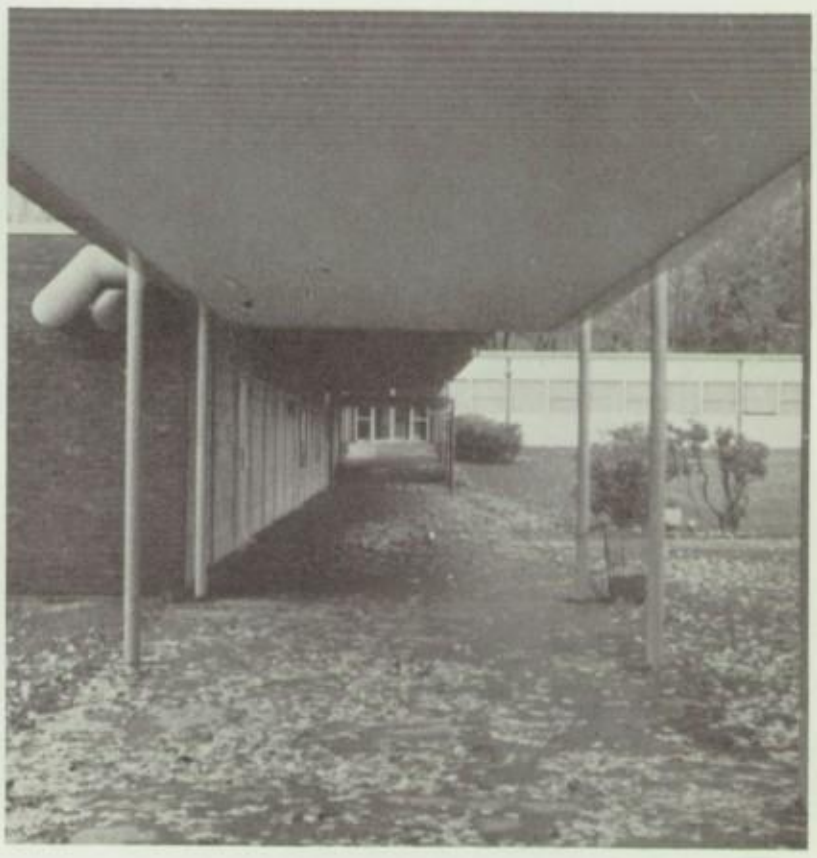
Adida: Someday you're going to get yours, O.K. . . . Someday.



always

From sophomore orientation to graduation day,
From learning where C-building was and trying to find K,
From sweating through the Regents to cracking up on SAT's,
We tried to maintain sanity and loudly voiced our pleas.

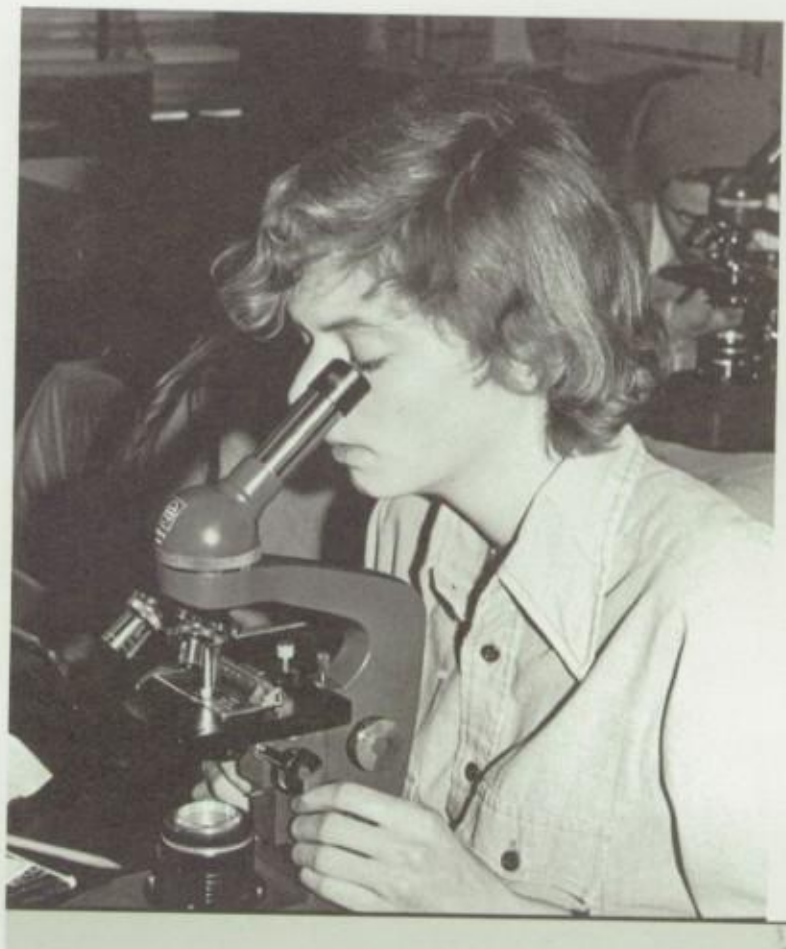




From fighting with the computer for the higher grades we never got,
From cheering for the Indians whether our team was winning or not,
From flocking to the parties that John Jay is famous for,
To finding high school halfway through, not knowing what was in store.

Karla

And now with diplomas in our hands,
And tasseled caps and gowns,
Our focus points in new directions,
Beyond these sheltering towns.



Leaving parents and old friends behind,
We turn towards the future today,
But beneath those high school relics,
We will never forget John Jay.

Grapes of Wrath

The hallways are strewn with paper from vacated lockers. Not a trace of chalk remains on any blackboard. The classrooms are heavy with a deserted silence. The last bus leaves the parking circle and with it goes the echo of another high school generation. Left — over farewells will hang in the air until next September when a new class enters and the cycle begins again.

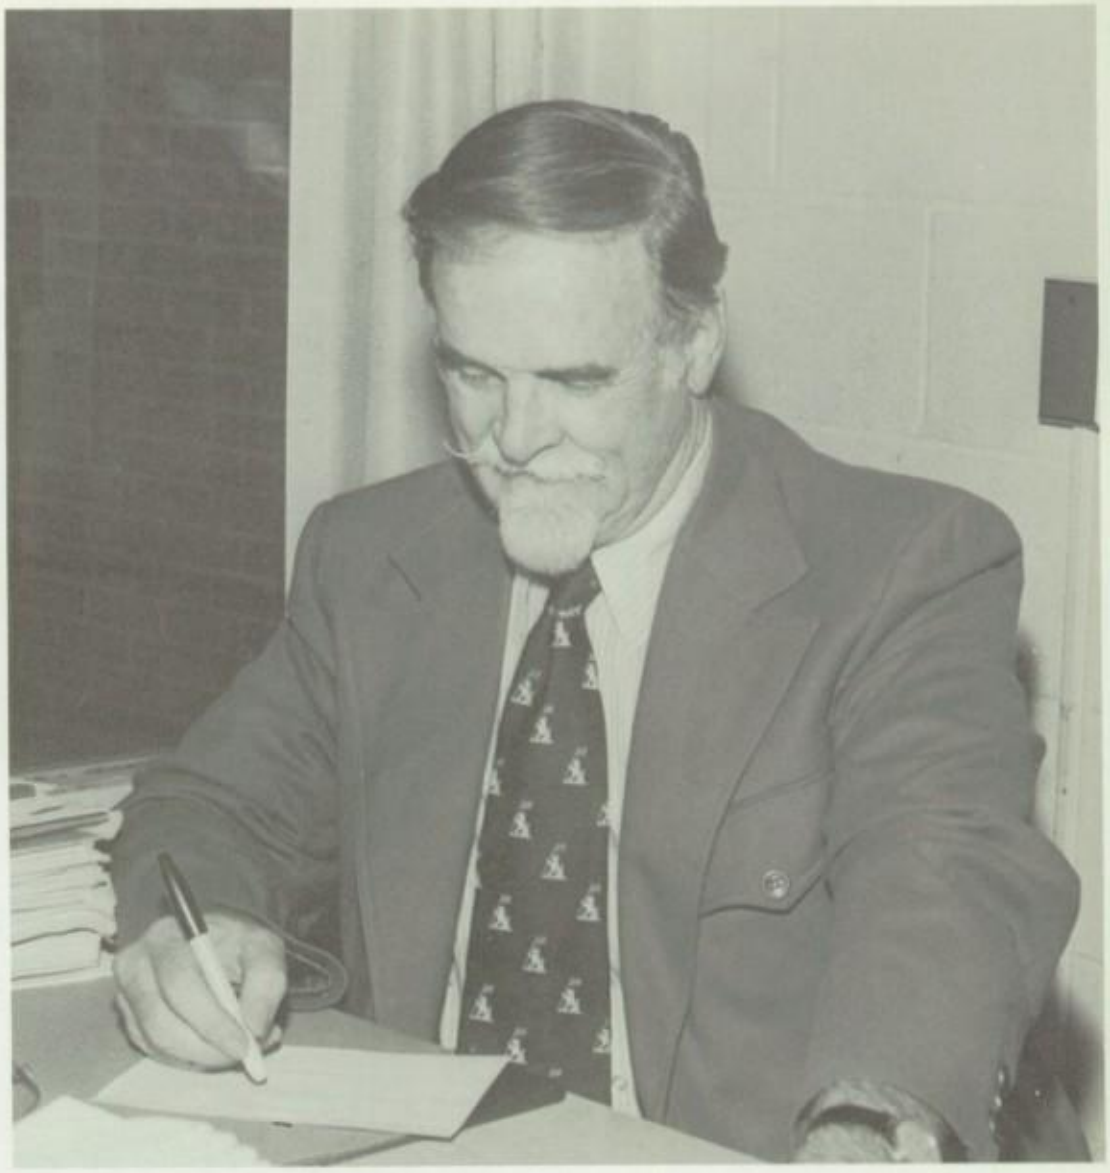
recognition



He walks into K-4 with an unmistakable air of authority. Empty — handed but for his roll book, he surveys his students with questioning suspicion, then sits down. As the class comes to order, he starts out with one of his favorite comments, "Well kids, the ditto machine broke down again so we won't have that test today . . . "

Mr. Noble has been gracing the halls of K now for nine years. Spouting volumes of colorful anecdotes with which to embroider his lessons plans, he generously shares pieces of his enchanting past with his classes. The instructor of the famous Humanities course, Mr. Noble often gives seniors their first taste of anthropology, international religions, and psychology. Mixed in with these topics, there may also be a few less obvious ones such as handwriting analysis and "How to Meditate in a Boiler Room", but whatever the subject matter, Mr. Noble's classes are always original and never boring. His knack for straying off the subject often leads into some of the most interesting intellectual discussions on campus.

Mr. Noble's plans for retirement promise to be anything but dull. Unfortunately, future classes will not have the pleasure of experiencing him as an instructor. As we leave John Jay, we take with us fond memories of Mr. Noble and we wish him much happiness in the years to come.

Randy (sweet boy).

I'm glad I got to know my old paper boy better! I really enjoyed spying on you when all those girls are always flirting with you. I guess they go after your blonde hair, which is getting sooo blond! Have a good time this summer at camp and you better work hard so you can beat out Kazazis at 1st string, you deserve it more than him.

" maybe next year my day will come and I'll have everything" certainly not as much as Debbie Cuz you know they don't come any bigger (you sure have improved in your taste. Keep up with the good work on Debbie, But I don't want to be ~~a~~ godmother for a couple of years from now. I'm really sorry for all the bad things I ever said to you. I wouldn't say it ever again. well I better stop cuz Debbie will probably want same room to write. next year ~~xxxxx~~ will be the last year I'll see you but I'll be there with you and Deb when we walk down that aisle together in 1983

Have lots of fun this Summer and keep an eye on ~~#~~ my hunk material. Love, see in you. Our friendship will last for ever as long as our hearts remain the same. I thank you for your time and thoughts you gave to me, and I hope some time I can do the same for you.

Bets

If dreams could only last forever, my time would be spent in heaven, but like everything else in this would everything has its end. I hope our friendship will last for eternity, and all your dreams you ever dreamed will come true. I wish you great luck in your future, and I am sure with your personality
